

To the Commission:

Despite being perhaps well-intentioned, I think this idea is premature. There is no body of rules for equipment authorizations in the service/frequency combination, the request was not initiated through the State Department (as one might expect for international requests), and the need is not readily apparent. I would urge the Commission to reject this proposal as resoundingly premature.

Respectfully yours,

/s./ James E. Whedbee
James Edwin Whedbee, N0ECN